I marmi sono elementi naturali caratterizzati principalmente dalle stupende colorazioni e venature.

Non esistono altri materiali in grado di essere paragonati al vero marmo: elegante, prezioso, unico ed inimitabile. Sono tra le pietre più pregiate impiegate nel campo dei complementi d'arredo non solo per l'aspetto estetico, ma anche per la durezza, la durata nel tempo e la resistenza che li contraddistinguono.

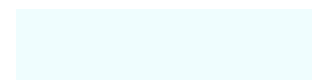

Marbles are natural elements mainly characterized by beautiful colors and veins.

There are no other materials that can be compared to real marble: elegant, precious, unique, and inimitable. They are among the finest stones used in the field of furnishing accessories not only for their aesthetic appearance, but also for the hardness, durability and resistance that distinguish them.
